

PUBLISHING AGREEMENT

It is the custom of JCPDS - International Centre for Diffraction Data to request authors to assign the copyright in their works, in order that JCPDS - International Centre for Diffraction Data may disseminate the WORK to the fullest extent. We would be grateful if you would confirm your acceptance of these terms by signing and returning this agreement to Denise Flaherty, ICDD, 12 Campus Blvd., Newtown Square, PA 19073-3273. This Publishing Agreement may not be substituted by any other form. EACH AUTHOR identified on the manuscript must sign this form.

In consideration of the publication of:

(Title of manuscript - please match the title written on this form exactly as it appears on the manuscript)

(“the WORK”) by the JCPDS - International Centre for Diffraction Data in Advances in X-ray Analysis, the author(s) hereby assigns exclusively to the JCPDS - International Centre for Diffraction Data the copyright in the WORK (including abstracts or summaries submitted with the WORK) throughout the world in any medium or form, now known or later developed.

The author(s) warrants that the WORK is original, that it has not been published before, that the copyright has not been assigned or licensed to another party, and that permissions have been obtained for any portions of the WORK subject to another copyright. The author also warrants that the WORK contains no libelous or unlawful statements, and does not infringe on the rights of others. The author(s) shall indemnify the JCPDS - International Centre for Diffraction Data and/or its successors and assigns for any claims arising out of any breach of these warranties.

This assignment is subject to the following conditions:

The author(s) reserves all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.

If the author is an employee of the United States Government and this work was done in that capacity, this assignment applies only to the extent applicable by U.S. law.

- Check here to indicate that you are a Government employee and that you cannot assign away copyright rights.*

The author(s) reserves the right, after publication of the WORK in Advances in X-ray Analysis, to use all or part of the WORK in compilations or other publications of the author's own works, or in any publication approved in writing by the JCPDS - International Centre for Diffraction Data, and to make copies of all or a part of the WORK for the author's use for lectures, presentations, classroom instruction, or similar uses.
